HOST ONLY

Christmas Trivia answer key

Keep this page with the host. Give one point for each correct answer.

Read a clue from page 2 before scoring if a team needs help.

Christmas on the page

1 Stockings — A Visit from St. Nicholas
Count Christmas stockings or socks.

2 Eight — A Visit from St. Nicholas
Count 8. This poem names eight reindeer.

3 Charles Dickens — A Christmas Carol
Count Dickens. The book is A Christmas Carol.

4 Tiny Tim — A Christmas Carol, Stave 3
Count Tiny. Dickens gives him the nickname in Stave 3.

5 Jacob Marley — A Christmas Carol
Count Marley.

The Nutcracker onstage

6 Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky — Tchaikovsky's score
Count Tchaikovsky and recognizable spellings.

7 Her slipper — Boston Ballet
Count shoe or ballet slipper.

8 A cloud — Boston Ballet
Count cloud. This is from Boston Ballet's version.

9 The Sugar Plum Fairy — Boston Ballet
Count Sugarplum Fairy as one word, too.

10 Celesta — Royal Ballet and Opera
Count celeste. The dance is the Sugar Plum Fairy's solo.

Trees in the city

11 New York City — Rockefeller Center
Count New York or NYC.

12 A star — Rockefeller Center
Count Christmas star.

13 Lumber — Rockefeller Center
Count wood or boards from the tree.

14 December 24 — National Park Service
Count Christmas Eve.

15 Calvin Coolidge — National Park Service
Count Coolidge.

OPTIONAL HELP

Christmas Trivia clue strips

Cut across the dashed lines. Read only the clue for the question in play.

Christmas on the page

1 You normally wear a pair of them.

2 Think of the number of legs on a spider.

3 The author's initials are C.D.

4 The first word means very small.

5 His first name is Jacob.

The Nutcracker onstage

6 The same composer wrote Swan Lake.

7 She can take it right off her foot.

8 You might see one floating across the sky.

9 She's named after a sweet, and she has a famous dance.

10 Its name starts with the same three letters as celery.

Trees in the city

11 Its nickname is the Big Apple.

12 It's the shape often drawn in a night sky.

13 Think of something you could build with.

14 It was the day before Christmas Day.

15 He went by Calvin.