

Our world

Keep this page with the host. Accept the variants listed below.

01 The Pacific Ocean

Also accept: Pacific

NOAA: What is the largest ocean basin on Earth?. The Pacific covers a larger area than any of Earth's other ocean basins.

02 The Arctic Ocean

Also accept: Arctic

NOAA: What is the world's smallest ocean?. The Arctic is the smallest of the five named basins that make up the global ocean.

03 The equator

Also accept: Equator

Merriam-Webster: Equator. The equator circles Earth at an equal distance from the North and South Poles.

04 Antarctica

NASA Space Place: What Is Antarctica?. The South Pole lies on Antarctica, a continent covered almost entirely by ice.

05 An island

Also accept: Island; isle

Merriam-Webster: Island. An island is smaller than a continent and has water around it on every side.

06 A desert

Also accept: Desert

National Park Service: Deserts, Great Basin National Park. Deserts can be hot or cold.

07 South

National Park Service: Compass Course. North and south are 180 degrees apart, putting them opposite each other.

08 East

National Park Service: Compass Course. With north at the top, east is to the right, south below and west to the left.

09 Mount Everest

Also accept: Everest

NOAA: What is the highest point on Earth as measured from Earth's center?. Everest has the highest summit above sea level; other height measures can differ.

10 An atlas

Also accept: Atlas

Merriam-Webster: Atlas. An atlas gathers maps into a book, often with extra geographic information.

Source notes are clickable. Read the questions and source links online: