

School Morning Card Deck

Nine cards, one task each. Your kid moves them from Not Yet to Done; the deck resets at night.

CUT OUT THE NINE CARDS

Write cards 1 to 8 in permanent marker. Card 9 changes, so use dry-erase.

1 Backpack  Packed, by the door	2 Teeth &amp; hair  Bathroom done	3 Breakfast  Eaten, or grab-and-go in hand
4 Lunch  Packed, or money in the folder	5 Water bottle  Filled	6 Shoes &amp; layer  On, and right for today
7 Forms  Folder checked: slips, book, payment	8 Ready spot  At the door, backpack on	9 Grown-up handoff  Dry-erase: today's ride or change

THE NIGHT-BEFORE RESET

The reset is what makes the deck reusable instead of disposable.

- Move every card back to Not Yet.
- Stage the backpack zone: folder, water bottle, lunch note, tomorrow's layer.
- Check the folder for anything due: slip, teacher note, payment, library book.
- Pick tomorrow's breakfast lane: sit-down, grab-and-go, or backup.
- Write anything different on card 9 in dry-erase: early pickup, a different driver.
